The Wellness Ministry

Eat Well and Live Well with a Healthy Gut

What we eat and the environment around us affects the trillions of microbes that live in our intestine, collectively known as the gut microbiota or gut microbiome. According to the Mayo Clinic, a healthy diet can encourage the presence of good gut bacteria. Also, consuming fermented foods increases the level of fermenting bacteria in the gut. In addition, fruits and vegetables contain fiber and sugar that can boost the health of gut bacteria. A diet high in processed foods and added sugars can decrease the amount of good bacteria, in the gut. Significant antibiotic use may also have a negative effect on gut bacteria. 130th Anniversary Photo Book is Here

As we celebrated Founders' Day on March 6th, we continue to note the remarkable and historic journey of Peoples Congregational Church. You can continue that celebration; and help to support our future by buying a Photo Book prepared by the Capital Campaign Community of Faith Photo Book Subcommittee. The Photo Book, "Nash Hall to Now Images of Our 130-Year Journey 1891- 2021" presents remarkable images and stories that resonate in the continued life of our Church.

First, you can order and pay for your copies for delivery to the church on this link:

Second, you can fill out a paper form and return it to the Church with your check payable to Peoples Church with 130th Photo Book and number of copies on the Memo Line. Click here for the Information Flyer and Order Form.

Order Forms will be mailed to members on our postal mail list with a return stamped envelope. The cost of the first copy is $75. The cost for each additional copy on the same order is $70. Upon delivery of the books, you will be notified regarding the schedule for pick-up.

We express gratitude for those who made this commemoration possible, and more so, to each faithful member whose contributions make the continuation of our journey possible.

Order your Photo Book Today! You can pick-up your Photo Book on Easter Sunday after the 10:00 a.m. Worship Service!
