**Call to Worship

Minister Geneva Hudson

Leader: On this first Sunday of 2026, as we gather for Communion, we come together in the spirit of dreams—dreams that inspire, guide, and reveal God's presence among us.

People: We gather with open hearts, ready to receive the wisdom of our dreams and the stories that shape us.

Leader: As the Magi journeyed to find the Christ child, following a star and trusting their dreams, may we seek the Light that calls us forward, even amidst life's distractions.

People: We come with our stories, our distractions, and our aspirations, longing to encounter the Holy and be renewed.

Leader: Psalm 84 reminds us that in God's presence, we find strength and joy. Let us lift our voices and our hearts in worship, seeking connection and Communion with God and one another.

All: May our gathering be a sacred space where dreams lead us closer to the heart of Jesus. Amen.

**Invocation

Minister Geneva Hudson

Gracious and Loving God, as we gather on this beautiful day, the first Sunday of 2026, we are filled with gratitude for the opportunity to come together in this sacred space. We acknowledge the dreams that stir within our hearts, the hopes that guide our paths, and the distractions that often pull us away from Your presence. We thank You for the wisdom of the Magi who followed the star, seeking truth and purpose. Like them, may we tune our hearts to Your guiding light, trusting that Your dreams for us are greater than we can imagine. Open our eyes to see the beauty in the intricate details of our lives and help us discern what truly matters. As we share in this Communion meal, may we be reminded of Your infinite grace and love, nourishing us for the journey ahead. Help us to cast aside distractions and embrace the point of our gathering—Your presence among us. Bless our time together, that we may worship in spirit and truth, encouraging one another to live boldly into our dreams. In Your holy name, we pray. Amen.

**Affirmation

Deacon Carrie Tyus

We are not alone; we live in God's world. We believe in God, who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. In life, in death, and in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

**Covenant

Minister Geneva Hudson

We are united in striving to know the will of God as taught in the Holy Scriptures and in our purpose to walk in the ways of God, made known or to be made known to us. We hold it to be the mission of the Church of Jesus Christ to proclaim the Gospel to all humankind, exalting the worship of the one true God and laboring for the progress of knowledge, the promotion of justice, the reign of peace, and the realization of the beloved community. Depending as did our fathers and mothers upon the continued guidance of the Holy Spirit to lead us into all truth, we work and pray for the transformation of the world into the City of God. We look with faith for the triumph of righteousness and the life everlasting.

Invitation to the *Holy Communion

Leader: Friends, we come together at this table, where our Lord invites all to experience the grace, love, and connection that come from sharing in this sacred meal. As we gather, let us open our hearts to the presence of Christ among us.

People: We come with gratitude for the gifts of bread and cup, symbols of Christ's body and blood, offered for us.

Leader: On the night that He was betrayed, Jesus took bread, and after giving thanks, He broke it. He gave it to His disciples, saying, "Take, eat; this is My body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of Me."

People: We remember His sacrifice and witness His love.

Leader: In the same way, after supper, He took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

People: We come to this table, united by our faith, celebrating the new life we have in Him.

Leader: For as often as we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim the Lord's death until He comes again. Let us pray together: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
